

Facilities Limited at National Parks but They're Open

SACRAMENTO. — (UP) — State officials have been advised by the Department of Interior that the nation's 168 national parks will be open this year, but some services will be curtailed. In far western states the following services will be available: Boulder dam national recreational area, regular service. Grand canyon national park, south rim, bus service from Williams to hotel; north rim, no service. Death valley national monument, gas station at Furnace Creek camp, no other facilities. Kings canyon national park, no concessions. Yosemite national park, bus service from Merced and El Portal; Ahwahnee available only to Navy personnel; all other facilities in valley available. Sequoia national park, limited facilities in giant forest, bus service between Visalia and Giant forest beginning June 20; Camp Contorno to operate. Lassen volcanic national park, limited services. Mount Rainier national park, limited meals and overnight accommodations at Longmire, no bus service. Olympic national park, limited accommodations, no bus service. Glacier national park, limited accommodations, no bus service. Yellowstone national park, limited services, no bus or hotel services. Crater lake national park, no concessions.

Housing Contractors Warned to Start Jobs

Indicating that construction of the 1359 housing units previously allocated to the Torrance area will get under way immediately a deadline of July 15 was announced yesterday by I. F. Dix, War Production Board priorities manager, as the time when holders of material priorities must use them or risk their "recapture." No orders will be renewed and no new orders will be issued to dilatory contractors, he warned. "Recaptured" priorities will be reassigned within the same areas so that other contractors can build the needed homes, according to Kelvin C. Vanderlip, National Housing Agency chief in Los Angeles.

Loan of Ambulance Denied by Council

Quoting the trust indenture signed with the donors of the vehicle, the Torrance Kiwanis club, City Attorney John E. McCall informed the city council Tuesday night that city council cannot legally permit the Torrance branch of the Red Cross to use the city ambulance to transport maternity patients in San Pedro and Long Beach. Use of the ambulance for this purpose was requested by the Red Cross here last week.

Rotary to Hold 'Demotion' Friday

Torrance Rotarians, their wives and other guests will trek to the Lakewood Country club tomorrow (Friday) night for the annual "demotion" ceremonies and dinner-dance marking the retirement of President J. Hugh Sherry and the installation of President-elect Fay Parks. The entertainment will be directed by Wallace Post and his committee.

BOYS AND GIRLS!

Here's Chance to Help Your City Plan Fun for Everyone

Every boy and girl in Torrance can be of great service to the new City Youth Commission in its endeavor to plan a better recreational program here. They should carefully fill out the following questionnaire and mail or bring it to The Herald or Rev. Paul M. Wheeler, temporary chairman of the Commission, 1230 Acacia ave. Additional copies of this questionnaire may be obtained at The Herald office, 1336 El Prado.

Safeway Official to Address S. C. Advertising Meet

Rilea W. Roe, vice-president of Safeway Stores, Inc., will speak before the Publishers-Advertising Executives luncheon in connection with the Southern California hometown newspapers War-time Advertising conference at the Los Angeles Biltmore hotel, Saturday. His subject will be "Do We Have What It Takes?" Roe will outline some fundamental problems confronting business men and responsibilities of good citizens in wartime. He has been with Safeway Stores for 24 years, and is the oldest employee of the company in continuing service. When he joined Safeway Stores in Burley, Idaho, the company had only four stores in operation, while today the organization has grown to a total of approximately 2500 stores.

In succession, Roe has been a vegetable washer, salesman, store manager, supervisor, buyer, district manager and now vice-president with headquarters in Oakland.

Council to Determine if City Dump Can Hold 3,000 Tons of Glass

Three thousand tons of broken glass is a lot of broken glass. The city council was faced with a request by the Doak Aircraft Co. to dump that amount of debris, collected from its property which was the site of the old Torrance glass works, in the city dump.

Members of the municipal board will inspect the dump to determine if it can hold that amount of glass rubble and still leave room to spare for the usual amount of trash collected here.
